No Woman

Blaine Larsen

Five hours of football one afternoon Three nights of poker dragging in past two Four years of trying to make it last Even a fool could do the mathNo woman is gonna hang around For some man who can't figure it out Do the numbers, it all adds up to No woman, no woman for youOne of seven boxes, one Uhall truck Three brawny men a loadin' it up One thousand "I'm sorry's" ten minutes too late One fed up girl on the interstateNo woman is gonna hang around For some man who can't figure it out Do the numbers, it all adds up to No woman, no woman for youCongratulations Einstein Look at what you've done You've solved the equation For two minus oneNo woman is gonna hang around For some man who can't figure it out Do the numbers, it all adds up to No woman, no woman for you No woman, no woman for you
