Pieces of Me

Fates Warning

Lying broken under jagged pieces
Of burned out bridges, suffocating, I can't breathe
No direction, I'm scattered in the breeze
Living on memoriesEverywhere I look, as far as I can see
Broken promises, broken promises
Pieces of me, pieces of me
Pieces of me, pieces of meDrowning, choking, falling deeper into this
Black hole we call living and I can't breathe
No connection, I'm scattered in the breeze
Living on memoriesEverywhere I look, as far as I can see
Broken promises, broken promises
Pieces of me, pieces of me
Pieces of me, pieces of meAll that I remember now
Are people and shadow
All that I remember now
Are people and shadowEverywhere I look, as far as I can see
Broken promises, broken promises
Pieces of me, pieces of me
Pieces of me, pieces of me
