Title: Alpha and Omega

(Do or Die)

the alpha is the beginning the omega is the end the alpha is when you do the omega is when you die so the alpha omega is when you do or die it's unexplainable when I drop that ass like a 64 bitches from niggas to niggas to bitches and cops know

I'll appeal make a mothafucka do a cartwheel and I steal bust lust in broad day fuck what those marks say

I'm breaking em off like dog legs when they try to parlay thats when you all dead

I have the zone call all red (all red) we new in the area shit is small as adams who can bust your shit thats we packs and make stacks now who you fucking with (don't have no backup)

who you ducking with south explainitory in your crew role no love no glory as I come crucial like gunflick handle your function dicks in dirt by bunches and throw shit when I come like bitchable hood shit

I'm smoking bitches like a cigar we are them nigga be putting bitches in back of the kizar but so far I, pop that trunk see the leg frong (dump those bodies, dump those bodies) what men won't do to his enemies as I proceed to split this bitch like a philly feel me believe me and see me in 3D have you heard I will use my 3rd eye does it occur when I demonstrate the lemonade and witness survivial fitness don't need no mix to handle my business yes you guessed it I'm double breasted when I flex shit 34 shots requested no exit in the land of closed casket and this ain't the last shit

(chorus) 2x

alpha (alpha) and omega (omega)

the beginning (beginning) and the end (and the end) I'm on some midwest throw slug to the chest shit putting slugs where your vest fit (vest fit) camoflauge I come with shit thats hard to dodge raise up like a garage unseen like a mirage in the land again just to blame the men with my idiotic hypnotic disco tendencies give it to ya like a centerfold when pop the individual (pop the individual, pop the individual) be fucking ya ass like a pretzel lord living them gangsta shit that sounds too incredible flex like solo toss like a photo erupt like volcanoes omego my flow sounds too evil into the land we go the warland of no men material black nigga know not to fuck with we buck quick they duck quick coming far from this steel piece individuals start to decrease and release those spirits you hear it, you hear it, you hear it (chorus)
alpha (alpha) and omega (omega)
the beginning (beginning) and the end (and the end) alpha (alpha) and omega (and omega) the do or die
