Dripping Goss

Tall stilts give you a better view
Telegraph from the information man
Too far behind it
Too far to see beside all
I heard there was a message from you

Indecision crusts the spine
Burning bridges was your crime
And that?s a game

Pregnant woman you did find
Useless pages lost this time
And that?s a shame man, that?s a shame

Tall stilts give you a better view
Railroad spikes and green glass conductors
Mile high and blinded on a borrowed unicycle
But I didn?t find that message from you

Indecision crusts the spine
Burning bridges was your crime
And that?s a game

Pregnant woman you did find
Useless pages lost this time
And that?s a shame man, that?s a shame
