I Still Believe In Love

Lea Salonga

(marvin hamlisch/carole bayer sager)After all the tears I've cried
You'd think I would give up on love
Get off this line
But maybe I might get it right this timeI was there as passion turned to pain
Sunshine turned to rainy days
Yet here I am
Ready to begin once againAll my life I've been a dreamer
Dreamin' dreams that always broke in two
But I still believe in love
And I love believing
Maybe you can make my dreams come trueHere content with who I am
I'm reachin' out my hand to him
Once again
At least I know I've made myself a friendAll my life I've been a dreamer
Dreamin' dreams that never quite came true
But I still believe in love
And I love believing
I'll keep on dreaming
Because I still believe in loveI still believe in love
And me
And you
I still believe in love
