Chariot

Burn The Ballroom

I never thought the sweetest sin could be my saving grace
I never thought I'd love again the queen of red light lane
I never thought one tiny spark could set my world ablaze
But lovers say there's hell to pay when fire feeds a flameOh Chariot come on and fix my broken wings
Oh Chariot be the song a blackbird sings
Oh Chariot oh carry us
Oh my Chariot carry us awayShe never thought a night alone beneath the stained glass glow
Could light a love this flightless dove the kind she'd never know
She always thought that fate was fought in battle evermore aw honey
But lovers say there's hell to pay all's fair in love and warOh Chariot come on and fix my broken wings
Oh Chariot be the song a blackbird sings
Oh Chariot oh carry us
Oh my Chariot carry us awayAnd I'm waiting on my Chariot to come
Oh my chariot carry usMy Chariot come on and fix my broken wings
Oh my Chariot be the song a blackbird singsOh Chariot come on and fix my broken wings
Oh Chariot be the song a blackbird sings
Oh Chariot oh carry us
Oh my Chariot carry us away
