

Fly Away

August Moon

Moments that try to make you, cut down to size
The hand of guilt has got you begging for life
And desperately you search for something, anything to end the fight
But you're too scared to trust anyone, even yourself, so you hide
Chorus:
But when I fly away, I'll kiss the sky
And when I fly away, I'll be alright
Dripping where you stand, exposed, don't drown
Try to understand the source of doubt
And desperately you search for something, anything to end the fight
But you're too scared to trust anyone, even yourself, so you hide
Chorus:
But when I fly away, I'll kiss the sky
And when I fly away, I'll be alright
Bridge:
Those sleepless nights, and painful times, and tears that never dry
Great leap of faith, jump off the edge so high
I'll fly, high
Chorus:
And when I fly away, I'll kiss the sky
And when I fly away, I'll be alright
