Exit Wounds

Tears to Embers

There's an open door that I cant re-enter
I tried to forget but i always remember,
What was once may never be,
What we had is a memory

[Pre-chorus]
From days that were better,
When the pieces fit together,
What was left of a picture is in the answers

[Chorus]
Why does it hurt, I thought it was over
Thought i killed the nerve, reduced it to embers
And as it burns, its so surreal, these exit wounds will never heal, NO!

Now my visions blurred though i'm still sober,
This poison sets and why isn't it over,
What we were will never be,
So why am I still suffering

[Pre-chorus]
From days that were better,
When the pieces fit together,
What was left of a picture is in the answers

[Chorus]
Why does it hurt, I thought it was over
Thought I killed the nerve, reduced it to embers
And as it burns, its so surreal, these exit wounds will never heal, NO!

[Bridge]
Burning inside my mind,
Of the love I left behind,
Savor the silence, let me live this nightmare till it's through!!!
Its through...

[Chorus]
Why does it hurt, I thought it was over
Thought I killed the nerve, reduced it to embers
And as it burns, its so surreal, these exit wounds will never heal

(i thought it was over) Its so surreal!!
(why isnt it over) Its so surreal!!!

WHAT TO SAY!!!!
WHAT TO SAY!!!!
