3rd Eye

Prince

Using a special code, he accessed his mind
In search of the reason why
In passion and fashion he began travelin' time
3rd eye, 3rd eye, 3rd eyeThe serpent approves
Then appears between Adam's thighs
And he tries to release upon Eve, the nectar
The injector tries, he tries, he tries, he triesSo, abduction complete, all stand on their feet
Look at one another and cry
What have we done? Could this be the fun
On the dotted line for which I did sign? Oh, yeahI resign from the notion 'cuz yours was the potion
That I'm supposed to die, for I resign
In self pity so dark, this shitty and stark
Realization is all that will sootheUltimately the only one that can save you is you
Your God is inside and for that God you will do
Whatever it takes, if nothing else is true
The only one that can save you is you, yeah
