

Push

Godhead

If you don't know, it's too late to turn around
If you can't see by now you'll never have the time to save yourself
As I follow, I learn from everything that you do wrong
It's hard to swallow, as all my pain is thrust upon you
Push it all away, I don't believe you
So I leave you
Standing all alone I hear you say
Push it all away
There'll never be another time when you oppress me
I'll never see you over me with all your games
It's hard to swallow, as all my pain is thrust upon you
Push it all away, I don't believe you
So I leave you
Standing all alone I hear you say
Push it all away
Sometimes nothing ever grows
Sometimes no one ever knows
Push it all away, I don't believe you
So I leave you
Broken by your fear inside your prison
You know I have won
Push it all away, I don't believe you
So I leave you
Standing all alone I hear you say
Push it all away
