My Life

The Forces of Evil

These days everybody's got something they want to say to me
These days everybody's got advice on how to live

All you mother fuckers well you don't know shit
This is my life and I'm the one who wants to live it
And I'll admit that I do not know shit but
It's up to me I'm gonna do it how I want to do it

I don't need your advice
Let me live my own life
I can fuck it up myself

I know everybody thinks I'm stupid, young, dumb and naive
I know everybody thinks they know what's best for me

All you mother fuckers well you don't know shit
I've got a mind and I am not afraid to use it
I know you shouldn't rhyme shit with shit but
This is my song I'm gonna sing it how I want to sing it

Myself
And I will, and I will yeah yeah

All you mother fuckers well you don't know shit
This is my life and I'm the one who wants to live it
And I'll admit that I do not know shit but
It's up to me I'm gonna do it how I want to do it
