Dream

Tuck & Patti

I've been thinking (yes I have)
Some call it wishful thinking (I don't)
'Bout the way this life could beSo much sadness (seems like)
Not enough gladness (seems to me)
Lack of vision is a dangerous thingIf you can see it
Then you start to feel it
The next thing you know, you believe
And that's when dreams begin to come trueSo with all your heart and your soul
Start right now--really take control
Turn our dreams into reality
And until you do, I'll be dreamin' for me and you
We'll see together what a dream can do
We'll discover how to make dreams real
If seeing is believing, then let the dreaming begin
Let the dreaming beginIf you can see it
Then you start to feel it
And the next thing you know, you believe
And that's when dreams begin to come true
Oh they'll begin to come trueSo with all your heart and your soul
Start right now--really take control
Turn these dreams into reality
I know that we can change this world
But first you're gonna have to believe
Oh believe say yes
We can change this world
But first you're going to have to
