

Heaven for a G

Maino

[Chorus:]

Is the Heaven for G?

A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?

A spot for the ones who did wrong

So tell me where I'm gone!

Is the Heaven for G?

A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?

A spot for the ones who did wrong

So tell me where I'm gone! Is the Heaven for [?]

A ghetto in the sky, tell em where it be,

Please everybody tell me what you know

Cause after they die would your gun sling [?]

Visions of a Heaven got me picturing the cloud

Now I don't even know if any crooks are allowed

Get a lot of dirt, get a lot of things found

So do I got the right to say I'm still God's child?

Damn! Oh, my Lord, forget me for saying this

But I need to know, is Heaven just a wait list?

[?] I really go, is [?] like the club

[?] I can't get in cause I'm dressed like [?]

Cold outside, knocking on Heaven's door

Standing next to the thieves and the whores.

People still call [?] and welfare

That's hell, is there a Heaven where [Chorus:]

Is the Heaven for G?

A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?

A spot for the ones who did wrong

So tell me where I'm gone!

Is the Heaven for G?

A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?

A spot for the ones who did wrong

So tell me where I'm gone! Yeah, I'm thinking about my friends, I'm missing them, hell, yeah

So I talk to 'em, I see 'em when I see [?]

If you hear me, then tell me what it feels like

Is a Paradise, what this God look like?

Is he cool, is he mean, is he nice?

Is he tall, is he black, is he white?

I ain't planning, I'm just trying to understand

Nobody ever said is got a [?]

What about the inmates, what about the OGs
What about the gang bands, what about the [?]
If it's hell on Earth, what would Heaven be?
[?] got a couple felonies.
I already know, I'm ready when I die
I'm a go to Heaven all fucked up and high
Looking for the sky [?] with a cellphone
Just in case Heaven like jail, I'm a call home![Chorus:]
Is the Heaven for G?
A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?
A spot for the ones who did wrong
So tell me where I'm gone!
Is the Heaven for G?
A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?
A spot for the ones who did wrong
So tell me where I'm gone! Listen!
Is there Heaven for G?
A place where we go [?] to the street
A spot where we don't have to run for police
We don't feel pain, we ain't blind, we can see
Somebody really tell me, is it life after death?
Is like a picture [?] and the shoes and the flesh?
Thinking to myself, I don't handle what is left
Feels like I'm the last nigger left
Wow, ride in a GT thinking about Curtis
Damn, [?] this is murder!
What happens to a killer and then gets murdered?
Does he go to hell, or does he deserve to
Walk through [?] living God's kingdom?
Do you got a place for [?]
Tell me, is it Heaven for [?]
If it is, please save a spot for me![Chorus:]
Is the Heaven for G?
A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?
A spot for the ones who did wrong
So tell me where I'm gone!
Is the Heaven for G?
A place where the criminals and drug dealers meet?
A spot for the ones who did wrong
So tell me where I'm gone!
