Goodbye Street

Hepcat

A last coffee, and a loving kiss..
Our eyes meet and we already miss
Holding hands, strollin' down the shore
Rolling in the sand say "I love you", once more..
What does it matter still my heart grows weak..
As we stroll down Goodbye Street

I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I want to walk along with you...
I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I wanna be the one for you...

Walkin' alone makes me feel so blue...
Everything reminds me so much of you
Others lovers pass me by,
Surely they can see a tear in my eye
I wonder how can this be?
I let your love slip away from me...

Now I have to sit and wonder:
Do you love some other guy?
Do we share these lonely feelings?
I can't deal with the pain
That's the reason why

I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I want to walk along with you..
I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I wanna be the one for you..

Now I have to sit and wonder
Do you love some other guy?
Do we share these lonely feelings?
I can't deal with the pain
That's the reason why

Never so hard did love ever try,
As she did with you and I
I'll hold you close and
Then I'll say goodbye

Oh won't you give this love
Just one more try.

I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I want to walk along with you..
I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I wanna be the one for you..
I don't wanna walk alone girl (I don't wanna walk alone)
I want to walk along with you.. with you..
