

Bang Your Head

Milla

Hey little devil that dwells inside
This angel's body, this angel's mind

He said, "All I need is Jesus to fly"Take a little peak through this head of hair
I know somewhere there are eyes in there

Trying to hide a heart that's shining, so brightThey said, "What makes you different from us?"We're gonna bang your head downI've got a dream that's growing inside me

I'm ready to burst and set it free

I know God waits in the city of angelsNow I've been building a wall these many years
I feel safe inside hiding all my fears

Don't hold your breath if you're trying to touch meThey said, "Don't believe in yourselfWe're gonna bang your head down

We're gonna bang your head

Bang your head downWe are aging, soon to pass away
So cruel to never know, never know

Never finish what was startedMy whole life's been really strange
I've been running in circles trying to make a change

I transcend myself with Billy, I'm homeThey said, "What makes you different from us?"We're gonna bang your
head down

Bang your head, bang your head down
We're gonna bang your head
Bang your head, bang your head down
