

All Fall Down

Atomic Opera

I hear the king of rumor
The jack of all he hears
This little game he plays
It's like a loaded question
It's like a masquerade
Where spades are never spades
Why would you build yourself up
Upon a house of cards
They all will fall down
They all will fall down
They all will fall down
It's strange how they can see
What never has been shown
It's like a magic trick
They are the ace of secrets
Things they don't need to know
So easy to predict
Why would they build themselves up
Upon a house of cards
They all will fall down
They all will fall down
They all will fall down
It's strange how they can see
What never has been shown
They are the Daily News
They seem to know my secrets
Things they don't need to know
Why can't they hear the truth
Why would they build themselves up
Upon a house of cards
They all will fall down
They all will fall down
They all will fall down
