

Dance for Me

Pony Up!

you rode in on a horse and I took him down I left you to walk alone I left you on the ground dance for me, I like to watch I've got that look in my eyes and you know that I could eat you alive you know that I could just take you inside the parting of the double ruby pout of his lips seemed to exhale an air sweeter than it drew in, oh, what does it cost me to refrain the so tempted kiss
