

The Score

LiLA

Before we break
We break the silence
You and I owe nothing
We walk the line but never keep the score
Take today, long live tomorrow
You and I owe nothing
We walk the path but never shut the door
Run fast to me destiny
All weâ€™ve got to believe in, is destiny
When it comes
The silver gift, a crown of sorrow
You and I owe nothing
We walk the line but never keep the score
Call the truce, the bridge is falling
You and I owe nothing
We walk the path but never shut the door
Run fast to me, destiny
All weâ€™ve got to believe in, is destiny
And the daughters that we give, forever live
All we got to believe in is destiny when it comes
