Pacific Palisades

Ash

You were standing on the shore Listening to the ocean roar The sea was tangled in your hair Immortal, young and free of caresYou let the night lull you away to Dark pacific palisades, yeah Wait for the summer, it'll come 'round againIt's coming down in sheets of rain Water's running in the drains I lie with candles by my bed Brian Wilson in my headDennis Wilson, Sharon Tate Dark pacific palisades, yeah Wait for the summer, it'll come 'round againDragged down by the undertow I know I can't live forever She is fire in my soul I know I can't live without herAll I have is in my head Only you can understand Yeah, wait for the summer, it'll come 'round againYou were standing on the shore Listening to the ocean roar The sea was tangled in your hair Immortal, young and free of caresYou let the night lull you away to Dark pacific palisades, yeah

Wait for the summer, it'll come 'round again
Wait for the summer, it'll come 'round again
Yeah, wait for the summer, it'll come 'round again
