

Fall Into Sleep

Mudvayne

Dreams of earthquakes
Dreams of hurricanes
Dreams of the pouring rain
Dreams of tidal waves
(To wash us all away)
Dreams of guns blazed
Dreams of fire rage
Dreams of swollen graves
Dreams of hollow pain

All gone

No more fallen

No more enemy

No more casualty

No more dream

Fall into sleep, fall into me, I have a dream

But nobody cares, nobody wants to listen

Fall into sleep, fall into me, hang onto a dream that

Nobody wants, nobody cares anymore

Dreams of mourning grief

Dreams of disbelief

Dreams of tragedy

Dreams of our disease

(To take us all away)

Dreams of fidelity

Dreams of inner peace

Dreams of loyalty

Dreams of unity

All gone, all gone

Fall into sleep, fall into me, I have a dream

But nobody cares, nobody wants to listen

Fall into sleep, fall into me, hang onto a dream that

Nobody wants, nobody cares anymore

The angels are injured

Fall with broken burning wings

Are we dead inside?

Are we blind?

We can't keep moving forward

Backwards with closed eyes

We're losing sight

All lost inside
No more fallen
No more enemy
Fall into sleep, fall into me, I have a dream
But nobody cares, nobody wants to listen
Fall into sleep, fall into me, hang onto a dream
That nobody wants, nobody cares
Nobody wants, nobody cares, anymore
All gone, all gone
All gone, all gone
