

Crescent Moon

Lynden David Hall

Ohh, woo, hoo
We always were together
Walking the same road, you and me like destiny
But then the path had parted
You went down one road and I went the other way
Loneliness, the feeling in my heart
Is all I have to hold today
Looking at the sky that's almost just about to cry
I have to say, but I can't help but think of you
Ohh, ohh
I'm here beneath the night, and you're not there
No I won't cry, won't cry anymore
Trying hard to live a life without you
Too peaceful, when I think about you
Ohh, ohh
Maybe, you're seeing the same big sky
A crescent moon, fades into the night
'Cause it might be bringing us together
You know I love you more than ever
Ohh, ohh
Yea, yea, hey yea
The days are getting colder
(Colder)
Keeping my hands warm by myself
Reality, I miss your arms so badly
Want you here with me, want you here with me
Even though you call me
And tell me how much you love me, I get blue
(I get blue)
You know I wanna hear it
But I really don't like to lean on you
So I'll wipe the tears away
I'm here beneath the night, and you're not there
No I won't cry, won't cry anymore
Trying hard to live a life without you
Too peaceful, when I think about you
Ohh, ohh
I wonder when I would see you again
Until that time again, I guess I'll have to live

Feeling the power you gave me, when you hold me close

And said I'll always love you, you know

Ohh

Here beneath the night, and you're not there

No I won't cry, can't cry anymore

Trying hard to live a life without you

Too peaceful, when I think about you

Ohh, ohh

Maybe, you're seeing the same big sky

A crescent moon, fades into the night

I believe in bringing us together

(Bringing us together)

You know I love you more than ever

(I love you more than ever)

Holding up my hands, can you feel the pain?

I'm reaching out to you, Crescent moon

(Crescent moon)

Hmm
