Never Let Go

Unicorns Killed My Girlfriend

She never asked for much
And she was giving even less
The only thing that she could count on
Was being depressed
No I won't forget that day
When I saw her in a dress
When I asked about her scars
Was the first time she confessed
She said
"You make me feel like there's electricity in my veins
And I don't ever want you to go"
Don't go away
Cause I can't sleep without you anymore
(Anymore...)

I'd walk to the ends of this earth
Just to find you
Cause you're my world
I'll give up everything I own
To have you
Cause you're worth so much more
And I'll never let go
I'll never let go
I still remember those happy times
It was just you and I and
For once we almost had it all

I can't believe how much things have changed
Ever since we went our separate ways
God, will things ever be the same?
The only thing I think about
Is your name
The only thing I wanna see
Is your face
But do you feel the same
(But do you feel the same)

And I still remember that day
Tears rolling down your face

Backstabbed by the people we thought were our friends
(But baby this is not the end)

I'd walk to the ends of this earth
Just to find you
Cause you're my world
I'll give up everything I own
To have you
Cause you're worth so much more
And I'll never let go
I'll never let go
