

Heart Skipped A Beat

Stanfour

Howling wind and driving rain
Will I ever see the sun again
Feeling weak, so fatigued
Hated my life, but could not weep
No ray of hope, no light inside
It all went wrong, just never right
Then came the day you entered my life

My heart skipped a beat
I almost went blind
Was swept off my feet
You're blowing my mind
The world I once knew
Was no longer true
You've changed my whole life forever more
My heart skipped a beat, oh, oh...
My heart skipped a beat, oh, oh...
My heart skipped a beat...
Oh, oh, suddenly I saw you
Suddenly I saw you

And now that you saved me from myself
I just feel like new again
My world has changed, you broke me free
Never thought I'd ever be
Watching the birds up in the sky
And feel like I'm flying just as high
They remind me of you

My heart skipped a beat
I almost went blind
Was swept off my feet
You're blowing my mind
The world I once knew
Was no longer true
You've changed my whole life forever more
My heart skipped a beat, oh, oh...
My heart skipped a beat, oh, oh...
My heart skipped a beat...

Oh, oh, suddenly I saw you
Oh, oh, suddenly I saw you

My heart skipped a beat
I almost went blind
Was swept off my feet
You're blowing my mind
The world I once knew
Was no longer true
You've changed my whole life forever more
My heart skipped a beat
I almost went blind

My heart skipped a beat
My heart skipped a beat
The world I once knew
Was no longer true
My heart skipped a beat
My heart skipped a beat
My heart skipped a beat
My heart skipped a beat
My heart skipped a beat
My heart skipped a beat
