Cling

Days Of The New

It seems so slow to me
Watching them drop like fleas
Got to run, got to get over this
I've faced my death, I've drowned in pissIs it okay if I invade you
Place myself before you?
Even though you think
You're so much better than meI'll break this, I'll take this I'll exist, I'll break thisThere is no peace to bring
Pain is the only thing
That's holding on, it won't let go
And can take over you, won't let you knowIs it okay if I invade you
Place myself before you?
Even though you think
You're so much better than meIs it okay if I rape you
Make something else
Something out of you?
Even though you think
I might just set you freeI'll break this, I'll take this
I'll exist, I'll break this
I'll break this, I'll take this
I'll exist, I'll break this
I'll break thisWhen I feel you, when I see you
I know you, I want you everyday
And I crave you, I've done you
I've thrown you awayOh, I feel you, I see you
I know you, I want you everyday, everyday
And I crave you, I've done you
Thrown you awayYes, I've thrown you away
Thrown you away
Thrown you away
Thrown you away
Thrown you awayI'll break this, I'll take this
I'll exist, I'll break this
I'll break this, I'll take this
I'll exist, I'll break this
I'll exist, I'll existI'll break this, I'll break this
I'll break this, I'll break this
I'll break this, I'll break this
I'll break this, I'll break this
