Lifeline

Katie Trotta

Will you be ok?
Will you be alright?
I can stay here till morning, I can stay all night.
I can tell you, your world, no it aint gonna end.
Tomorrows a new day you can start all over again!

Chorus:
And you can wrap my arms around you anytime and you can wear me like a vest i'll be your lifeline!
I'll keep you afloat in this wicked world, you can be at rest just knowing I'm here.

Did the world deceive you?
Has life been unkind?
Did time go to quickly leaving you lost and left behind?
Do you feel out of place even in you own skin?
Like everyday is a battle and your not sure if you can win.

And you can wrap my arms around you anytime and you can wear me like a vest i'll be your lifeline!
I'll keep you afloat in this wicked world, you can be at rest just knowing
You can wrap my arms around you, i can be your lifeline.
I'll keep you afloat, I promise I promise!

And you can wrap my arms around you anytime and you can wear me like a vest i'll be your lifeline!
I will keep you afloat in this wicked world, you can be at rest just knowing I'm here.
Im here, I'm here, I'm here, I'm here!
