

Under Control

Ellie Goulding

I'll never forget that feeling,
When I watched you disappear,
And you made me stop believing,
I could fight away the fear. Now the smoke has cleared and the end is near,
It was my illusion.
Like a broken dream, I was incomplete,
But your love was never the missing key. I feel like I'm breathing again,
I feel like I'm seeing again,
I feel like I'm breathing again,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh. All that's real is faded,
Like a car into the night.
Like a painkiller, I take it,
And I watch the world ignite. Now the smoke has cleared and the end is near,
It was my illusion.
Like a broken dream, I was incomplete,
But your love was never the missing key. I feel like I'm breathing again,
I feel like I'm seeing again,
I feel like I'm breathing again,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh. I got it under control.
I got it under control. I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh. I feel like I'm breathing again,
I feel like I'm seeing again,
I feel like I'm breathing again,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh. I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh,
I got it under control, oh, oh. I got it under control.
I got it under control.
