

A Girl Like You

Nobodys

I saw you standing there. you had big green eyes and long blonde hair.
Those fish net stockings I couldn't bare. when you bent over I had to stare...
'Cause a girl like you makes me go out of my mind.
I saw you at the store. you looked like her, just like a whore. Those great big tits I can't ignore. cause I know what you're waiting for.
I walked into the room. you glanced at me and I stared at you.
You looked like you didn't have a clue and I knew you just wouldn't do.
