Happy

Ashanti

{Right back at ya
It's the world's most talented record label, Murder inc
And that angelic voice you hear in the background
Oh that's our new princess of Hip Hop and R and B
Yo, Miss. Ashanti}
Boy you feel me with so much joy
You give whatever it is I need
My love, here to stay, won't ever leave
So glad that you fell in love with me
My love is so good
That I wouldn't be without you babe
Couldn't see me without you babe
My love is so good
That I wouldn't be with out you babe
Couldn't see me with out you baby
All my life I've been searching for ya
Everyday so glad, that I, found you boy
All my life I've been, feeling for ya
Everyday I'm so happy, baby, yea
Boy you, got me feelin' so good
You take all my pain away from me
Without you around I couldn't be
And I know you fell in love with me
My love is so good
That I wouldn't be without you babe
Couldn't see me without you babe
My love is so good
That I wouldn't be with out you babe
Couldn't see me with out you baby
All my life I've been searching for ya
Everyday so glad, that I, found you boy
All my life I've been, feeling for ya
Everyday I'm so happy, baby, yea
I'm so happy that I fell in love
I thank God, He sent you from above
I'm so happy that I found someone
I thank God, He sent you from above
All my life I've been searching for ya
Everyday so glad, that I, found you boy

All my life I've been, feeling for ya
Everyday I'm so happy, baby, yea
All my life I've been searching for ya
Everyday so glad, that I, found you boy
All my life I've been, feeling for ya
Everyday I'm so happy, baby, yea
That I wouldn't be without you babe
Couldn't see me without you, baby
Everyday is bad
That I wouldn't be without you babe
Couldn't see me without you, baby
