Thank You

Secret Garden

If I lived to be a thousand years,
If I ruled the word ? it?s hemispheres,
I could not repay the love you brought my way,
So, I want to say it now
To thank you for each day you gave me.

Thank you for the Mondays,
Saturdays and Sundays,
Everyday, the whole year through;
Thank you for the fun days,
All those number-one days,
Battles-to-be-won days, too;
I just want to say it,
Thank you for each day with?you.

We have just one life to seize the day,
We only have what time there is to say?
and do what we must do, express our gratitude,
So, I want to say it and sing it now to you.

Thank you for the Mondays,
Saturdays and Sundays,
Everyday, the whole year through;
Thank you for the fun days,
All those number-one days,
Battles-to-be-won days, too;
I just want to say it,
Thank you for each day with?you.

At the close of every day,
When I close my eyes to pray,
All I need to do, is just to think of you?
Then, all I need to say?is?

Thank you for the Mondays,
Saturdays and Sundays,
Everyday, the whole year through;
Thank you for the fun days,
All those number-one days,
Battles-to-be-won days, too;

I just want to say it,
Thank you for each day with?you.
