

Let Me Go

Rancid

OK, check this out...It aint impossible, it aint easy
Opportunities shiftin' here
So far the strategy aint workin'
The facts are in, it's so... very clear
I do what I want, I can't predict the future
And then the truth can be hard to swallow
And those who can, I know that they are lyin'
In a soap opera world leaders are cryin'Correction, I need no direction
Let me go just one last time
Let me go just one last time
I spent my whole life searchin' for directionOr join forces with an axe grind
U.S.A. protecting your cancers
You can burn a book if you don't like the answers
And there's a growing sentiment in America
A list of hatred's easy to find
Right is right, wrong is wrong
If you listen closely you can hear them allAnd the evil considered bad behavior
Correction, I need no direction
Let me go just one last time
I spent my whole life searchin' for direction
Let me go just one last time
Bad generations, polarized view
No one leaves home to go and help youWatch CNN and then you know
Boom, boom, boom, look around
US bombs come down and whatcha gonna do
There's no more roof, no more house, no street, no town
All shot down, burnt black and brown, electrical meltdown
You hear the sound of the US bombs all around
And then you know...Oh, it's a shakedown, it's a breakdown, atomic sundown
Correction, I need no direction
Let me go just one last time
I spent my whole life searchin' for direction
x2
Let me go just one last timeOne last time

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>