No Cure for the Pure

Amen

So impure that I need a pure
Everything I can endure
I stay away 'cause I've got
Nothing here to stayWhy can't I believe?
Why am I so impure?
Person justified inside something I endure
Because I turn myself in a whore again
I heard it all before
'Cause I lost myself in pure horror
'Cause, no cure
No cure for the pureSomebody said, "Everything is everything"
Everything is everything
Everything is nothing
[Incomprehensible]I don't wanna live
In something so impure
Who'd want you to live inside your
Because I turn myself in a whore again
I heard it all before
You know I lost myself in pure horror
'Cause there's no cure for the pure
There's no cure for the pure
There's no cure for the pure
There's no cure for the pure
Why am I so impure?
