

Don't Wake Up (feat. Johanna Kurkela)

Zacharius Carls Group

We had poets among us, but we didn't quite hear them
There was storms rising all the time, both sides of the borderline
There was a savior sitting in the corner of our room
While the records were playing, our time was running to fast
We had our hands tied down, with our own inconvenience
Just like the children in the snow, yeah the children of the snow

Chorus

Don't wake up, no not just yet, this dream has a different ending
Don't wake up, no not just yet, let the thunder pass and slip back into your dreams

There was darkness inside every boy and every girl
Our shawls were dancing in the air, for strong winds in our hair
There was darkness inside every sister and brother
Both sides of the borderlines, both sides of the river
Well at least we had music, and two bottles on the floor
Well we were pretty empty in the air

Chorus

Don't wake up, no not just yet, this dream has a different ending
Don't wake up, no not just yet let the thunder pass
Don't wake up, no not just yet, this dream has a different ending
Don't wake up, no not just yet, let the thunder pass and slip back into your dream.

Somehow, I feel always at home, cause there's a wound in my soul that makes me whole
And oh my love, you know things may change for the better
This time my friends and I, we were born to die together

Don't wake up
Don't wake up
Don't wake up
Don't wake up, let the thunder pass and slip back into your dreams

Lyrics Submitted by Mike Ward

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>