

Love You More

Adam Wheatley

This old heart is still believing
That love is born of the things you do
So I can't spoil you with all of my money
But you say the word and I'll pull down the moon
I'm going to give you everything this love can afford
The riches of this world will all fall short
And as long as this heart is beating you're going to know
That I'm going to love you more
I'm going to love you more
I never thought that love had a color
But it filled you up and colored your eyes blue
So when you throw a look in my direction
I'll cross any room just to talk with you
I'm going to give you everything this love can afford
The riches of this world will all fall short
And as long as this heart is beating you're going to know
That I'm going to love you more
I'm going to love you more
And when the hard times come without an invitation
We'll make good on all the promises we made
I'm going to give you everything this love can afford
The riches of this world will all fall short
And as long as this heart is beating you're going to know
That I'm going to love you more
I'm going to love you more
I'm going to love you more
