

Be My Escape

Veracity

Be my escape tonight I am the beggar on the street i've seen love but know defeat i am lost soul on the edge losing courage i am the child who fears the night waiting for day to see your light i feel so alone within my thoughts so hard to breathe and i am lost but i'll escape the fear escape the night run away from the dark til' ll turns to light
i am free i am alive in your sight be my escape me tonight escape the fear escape the night
be my escape me tonight I am the dark that fills my head i am the monster under the bed i am captive set me free someone save me i am alone and i'm afraid no escape from this masquerade i tried to hide from my mistakes i feel so lost is it too late but i'll escape the fear escape the night
run away from the dark til' ll turns to light
be my escape me tonight tonight tonight be my escape
be my escape me tonight (you are not alone) i am the lost i am alone and afraid but you give me light you give me life my escape i am the lost i am alone and afraid but you give me light you give me life my escape escape the fear escape the night
run away from the dark til' ll turns to light
i am free i am alive in your sight
tonight
tonight
