

In Time (Live at Heart of Austin)

Kris Allen

Seems like forever since I felt alive
My whole world was shaking in the blink of an eye
And everybody's got a word that's gonna take away the hurt
And make everything alright
But give just a little while 'Cause in time
In time I'll run, in time I'll heal
In time these wounds will show me what's real
In time I'll learn, in time I'll trust
And in time we'll love what's been broken in us
In time (Hoo hoo) Give yourself some distance, and what do you find?
That it's in the shadow places we first see the light
And I know there's a reason but I just can't see it
At least not tonight
But give me just a little while 'Cause in time
In time I'll run, in time I'll heal
In time these wounds will show me what's real
In time I'll learn, in time I'll trust
And in time we'll love what's been broken in us
In time (Hoo hoo) Hm wait, wait for it now
Wait, wait for it now
It's coming, it's coming
Wait, wait for it now
Oh won't you wait, wait for it now, oh Hoo, hoo, hey Oh in time I'll run, in time I'll heal
In time these wounds will show me what's real
In time I'll learn, in time I'll trust
And in time we'll love what's been broken in us
In time
In time, yeah
