Born For Love

David Baerwald

Hey, little cutie I was born for love
Can't count the chains I have worn for love
Killed three men and one unicorn for love
But I won?t mind if you just take me home
Hey, little darling I was made for love
Got down on my knees and I prayed for love
Crawled from Don to Duke and I begged for love
But I won?t mind if you just take me home

I know you feel lonely and misunderstood
But I?m yours for the asking for now or for good
If you want me to leave you just give me a shove
But you won?t because I was born for love
Hey, little cutie I was born for love
Can't count the chains I have worn for love
Killed three men and one unicorn for love
But I won?t mind if you just take me home
