

She Cries

Don Lewis Band

gone again, she said heading for the longest road so you sail away into the unknown one too many times hes beaten you down to the bone.

stay away, he said
don't ever come back home.
cry away her days that last so long all alone
stay away

she stays away fallen in the rain, your whole life has fallen apart.

weakend from the pain that he left inside your heart so you sail away

into the unknown
dont ever come back home.
cry away
her days that last so long she stays away alone she cries, lose that hate inside
all alone
no love, no life

without that loser who once said here's your kiss goodbye.see this is real, but she doesn't feel lonley hearts shattered dreams.

there's nothing better in this place sail away, into the unknown nothing but memories in your mind
stay away he said

all alone you sailed away

your days that last so long alone lose that hate inside
she cries

without that loser that once said here's your kiss goodbye alone she cries lose that hate inside

without that loser who once said
