Benighted

Keep Shelly In Athens

Lost in the boundless sea my peace will come to me I'll follow the beams of night and I'm never getting lost again I saw your face it's flaming bright benightedtalk, talk,
let it, let it
all go,
liberate your
foe, foe,
I can feel no
woe, woe
I can't feel...Did it matter?
Should have matter?Your eyes they're all aglow I guess I should forego Maybe you'll set me free but I'll never leave you know the tide of time is flowing back with me with me, yeahTalk, talk, work it, work it
all out,
beat your brains
about, (bout)
Can you live without (out)?
I can't leave (you)Did it matter?
Should have matter?
