I Come Undone

Elis

Time heals the wounded but my heart still bleeds,
I can't get you out of my life
Here is my confession, you're all I need
I don't want to love you but oh oh ohWith the touch of your hand I come undone
With the flash of your burning eyes I know that you're the only one
I come, I come undone, I come undoneYour footsteps are heartbeats
There's knocking on my door
I swore that I won't let you in Love's got its heroes but I know that I just Can't hold out forever and oh, oh ohWith the touch of your hand I come undone
With the flash of your burning eyes I know
that you're the only one
I come, I come undone, I come undoneDon't know what you're doing to me Cause when your arms reach out I'm gone
Here is my confession, you're all that I need
I don't want to love you but oh, oh ohWith the touch of your hand I come undone
With the flash of your burning eyes I know that you're the only one
I come, I come undone, I come, I come undone
