

Willing Prey

Kyshera

He attracts with a serving hand
Then attacks his prey with no mercy
Emotionless, he's armed & dangerous
And he's on the loose in your neighbourhood

He's a law all of his own
Leaves a trail of wreckage & bones

But masquerade as a tower of tinted windows
Abort his name for the shield of a noble logo
Outsource the blame to someone else's ideology
And we're willing prey, we're willing prey

He will stop, stop at nothing
When he's bled you dry then he's coming for your children

But masquerade as a tower of tinted windows
Abort his name for the shield of a noble logo

One crime & you are dangerous
But a thousand & it's only business

He's stalking you all the time
He wants to get inside your mind

But masquerade as a tower of tinted windows
Abort his name for the shield of a noble logo
Outsource the blame to someone else's ideology
And we're willing prey, we're willing prey
