Unfound Mortality

Benediction

Normalcy in threat evermore
Taken apart within the mental core
By ones who walk the wounded land
Uncanny destiny so damnedMortal eccentricity
Overrule the weird in alacrity
Contradiction tragedy pays
Immortal, shallow, fearless and empty waysFollowing a hollow Grail
Men from nowhere shall prevailNow oblivion waits
Horrendous earth raped eternal
Men from nowhereLook through their mind's eye
What do you see?
A rigid life, indefinitely
Innumerable victims cry in vain
Disintegrate in residual painPerished shrouded terror
Targets uncertainty
Hunt carries on
Gains predictabilityTouched by the dead
A pre-determined soul
Final abnormality
Sounding on in a lifeless death tollTime's a way for them to waste
Our existence bloom
Strive for sanity
Amentia's doomNormality obscured within
Hideous errors rapidly erased
New open wound has embowelled
Remains enragedNo stranger men have walked the earth
In such a lucid form
Victimize abnomalies
And defecating normAfraid to die a second time
So living lives in fear
Enforcing strange supremacy
Until their vision's clearMen from nowhere
