

Age of Adz

Sufjan Stevens

Well, I have known you
For just a little while
But I feel I've known you, I feel I've seen you
When the Earth was split in fives And in your words I should let it out
I would see you die
But I'm a watcher, I see it watch her
It's in your afterlife This is the age of Adz eternal living Oh, keep from trying, oh, keep from caring
You are the life
We see you trying to be something else that You're not, we think you're nice The circumstances of what I thought
I could see it now
I wouldn't be so, I wouldn't feel so
But it's running wild This is the age of Adz eternal living When it dies, when it dies
It rots
And when it lives, when it lives
It gives it all its got This is the age of our eternal living It rots
It gives it all its got This is the age of Adz eternal living And all reflections, I see your method
I see it all
And what about you? And what about me?
Are we the lost of lost? Don't speak too soon, don't be fruit of loom
Don't excite yourself
For what you see is not fantasy
It's not what it gets, but gives This is the age of Adz eternal living In all reflections I see it mentioned
I see it all
The gorgeous mess of your face impressed us
Imposed in all its art This is the age of Adz eternal living When it dies, when it dies
It rots
And when it lives, when it lives
It gives you all its got This is the age of Adz eternal living It rots
It gives it all its got This is the age of Adz eternal living When I die, when I die
I'll rot
But when I live, when I live
I'll give you all I've got When I die, when I die
I'll rot
But when I live, when I live
I'll give you all I've got Gloria, gloria
It rots
Victoria, Victoria
It lives in all of us Gloria, gloria

It rots
Victoria, Victoria
It lives in all of us I've lost the will to find
I've lost my main for life
I've lost the will to find
I've lost my main for life Now I have known you for just a little while
I feel I must be wearing my welcome, I must be moving on For my intentions were good intentions
I could've loved you, I could've changed you
I wouldn't be so, I wouldn't feel so
Concerned with selfish thoughts I'm sorry if I seem self-effacing
Consumed by selfish thoughts
It's only that I still love you deeply
It's all the love I've got
