

Real Sugar

Roxette

Right at the front door I recognized the perfume
The scent was perfect in the dusk by the moon
There must be many ways to ask her to my room
Why didn't I dare? Well, every hour I try to get somethin' done
Out on the weekend when I'm just havin' some fun
I'm windin' up with none, just zeros
No ones, just space with no air I get, bye, bye, baby, baby
Bye, baby, baby, bye, bye Real sugar, I don't wanna climb no walls
Real sugar and that's what I want or none at all
Real sugar, sweet as a sweet can be
Real sugar and that's what I want and what I need
And that's what I need Yeah, every Friday I'm gettin' ready to roll
I want her blue eyes start sayin', "Hi" and "Hello"
But I can always tell she'd rather be alone
With some other guy Real sugar I get, bye, bye, baby, baby
Bye, baby, baby, bye, bye Real sugar, I don't wanna climb no walls
Real sugar and that's what I want or none at all
Real sugar, sweet as a sweet can be
Real sugar and that's what I want and what I need Real sugar, I don't wanna climb no walls
Real sugar and that's what I want or none at all
Real sugar, sweet as a sweet can be
Real sugar and that's what you've got so what's for me?
Hey, what's for me? I turn myself in, turn, turn, turn
I turn myself out, outside and in
I turn myself in, turn, turn, turn
I turn myself out, outside and in Real sugar
Real sugar I get, bye, bye, baby, baby
Bye, baby, baby, bye, bye Real sugar, I don't wanna climb no walls
Real sugar and that's what I want or none at all
Real sugar, sweet as a sweet can be
Real sugar and that's what I want and what I need Real sugar, I don't wanna climb no walls
Real sugar and that's what I want or none at all
Real sugar, sweet as a sweet can be
Real sugar and that's what you've got so what's for me? Gimme, gimme real sugar
Gimme, gimme real sugar
I don't wanna climb no walls
I don't wanna climb no walls
