Woman Don't Cry

Black Label Society

In the end, all will be fine
I'm losing your mind
Life is short, we all run out of timeThis darkness that's set in your room
Close your eyes, we're all leaving soon
But now, I'm going awayWoman, don't you cry
Woman, don't you cryThis ain't the first or the last
Goodbyes come so fast
The darkness that's here, it never endsAlways so close yet so far
I've seen the blood and the scars
Right now, I'm going awayWoman, don't you cry
Woman, don't you cryWoman, don't you cry
Woman, don't you cryWoman, don't you cry
Woman, don't you cryWoman, don't you cry
Woman, don't you cry
