

Skeletons

Zombie Oil

[intro]

The streets are filled with memories, skeletons that used to breathe. And everything reminds me of you.
Life revealed its tragedies, and left left me here alone to read the point of words that cut me in two.

[verse]

I may be the bad guy, but you know why I had to lie.
Tonight Iâ€™m the sad guy.

[pre chorus]

And the streets belong to skeletons.

[chorus]

Skeletons
Skeletons that used to breath
Skeletons
Skeletons of you and me

[bridge]

There was morbus by the weeds, skeletons throw out the seeds of everything that linked me to you.
Fill the files with stressful deeds.
from papercuts that live to bleed, and every task is masking the truth.

[verse]

I may be the bad guy, but you know why I had to lie.
Tonight Iâ€™m the sad guy.
And the streets belong to skeletons

[guitar solo]

[verse]

I may be the bad guy, but you know why I had to lie.
Tonight Iâ€™m the sad guy.
And the streets belong to skeletons

[hook]

Skeletons
Skeletons that used to breath
Skeletons
Skeletons of you and me

Skeletons
Skeletons that used to breath
Skeletons
Skeletons of you and me

[outro]
