

Powertools and piss

Gluecifer

I got your beep and now I am on my way
Light falls and I am on my way 'Coz I'll nail that picture right through your wall
I got a black bag ready when nature calls
I got a two by fours by one to twelve
I got a generator buzzing with a sound from hell
From hell I got the powertools and piss
I got the powertools and piss Well, you called for it once
And now you want it some more
'Coz you're domesticated
And I poop on your floor I'll leave a stain in the middle of a carpet so clean
I'm going ancient, baby, if you know what I mean
I got a Titan club for a porcelain bell
Got a generator buzzing with a sound from hell
Alright, with a sound from hell, alright Yeah, I'll nail that picture right through your wall
I got a black bag ready when the nature calls
I got a two by four by one to twelve
I got a generator buzzing I want you all to listen
And I want you all to see
And I want you all to feel it I got the powertools and piss
I got the powertools and piss
I got the goddamn tools and piss
I got the powertools and piss
