The Dark Conquest

The Kovenant

A visitor appears before my eyes
A vision where I am king...eternal
And in the blackness of nightI shall conquer...I shall riseMy eyes they gleam with triumph and gloryMany battles I have fought...and wonAnd for centuries have I ruled as kingBut still the greatest conquest is to comeI will forever seek
To dominate the weakOh...how they shall sufferThe anger of my hateBut victory shall come...Embrace the dark conquest
"Forever winter...forever night..."A tear
