

The Dark Conquest

The Kovenant

A visitor appears before my eyes

A vision where I am king...eternal

And in the blackness of night I shall conquer...I shall rise
My eyes they gleam with triumph and glory
Many battles I have fought...and won
And for centuries have I ruled as king
But still the greatest conquest is to come
I will forever seek

To dominate the weak
Oh...how they shall suffer
The anger of my hate
But victory shall come...Embrace the dark conquest

"Forever winter...forever night..." A tear
