

Reflections

Iced Earth

As I reflect on the situation
A heavy heart for the task at hand
I witnessed savagery
Hands tied to destinyThe exodus of the chosen
As foreseen in the prophecy
Hiding until it's time
To cloud all the human mindsWhen they spoke of the invasion
We were chosen from ties that bind
Bloodlines through centuries
Destined to be the ones to leadThe twelve and I, a new high council
Absorb the power of the watcher's eye
High priest resides in me
The elder involved in often sin
