Livin' So Divine

Framing Hanley

Just a panic I can't get straight
I know this is under my control
It's apparent you got here late
But it's not too late if you wanna
Go on a trip to find out what is real
And now what they told you to feel
Oh my god

Don't look so low
You're starting to drag me under
Don't let them know
Or you're gonna blow our cover
Livin' so divine
Opens up your mind
Buy the ticket, take the ride

Lights are louder than words you speak
Relax it's all part of the show
You haven't even started to peak
That's when you'll really
Go on a trip to find out what is real
And now what they told you to feel
Oh my god

Don't look so low
You're starting to drag me under
Don't let them know
Or you're gonna blow our cover
Livin' so divine
Opens up your mind
Buy the ticket, take the ride

I just wanna tell you
But I just can't say a word

Oh my god

Don't look so low
You're starting to drag me under
Don't let them know

Or you're gonna blow our cover
Livin' so divine
Opens up your mind
Buy the ticket, take the ride
Take the ride
